

Young Adult Programs

 Friends Committee on National Legislation

At FCNL, we create opportunities for young adults to work for peace, justice and a sustainable environment in Washington D.C. and beyond.

Advocacy Corps

Lead local grassroots campaigns to influence members of Congress. Participants receive a financial stipend and commit to 25 hours per month for 10 months plus a 10-day immersive training in community organizing, media outreach, and lobbying.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

April 12, 2024

PROGRAM

August 2024–May 2025

Program Assistant Fellowship

Work as a full-time staff member of FCNL for 11 months, with placement on an outreach or a policy team as a program assistant. Benefits include salary, health care, paid vacation, and sick leave.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

January 2, 2024

PROGRAM

August 2024–July 2025

Summer Internship

FCNL summer interns are introduced to federal policy, grassroots organizing, and nonprofit management. The experience is ideal for undergraduate or college-age participants. Stipend included.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

March 25, 2024

PROGRAM

June—July 2024

Spring Lobby Weekend

Join hundred of young adults as they gather for four days in Washington, D.C. to advocate for a Truth and Healing Commission that will investigate violations at federally-sponsored Native boarding schools.

PROGRAM March 16–19, 2024

Find out more at fcnl.org/yap

Young Adult Programs

 Friends Committee on National Legislation

 quakerlobby  quakerlobby  fcnl  fcnl.org

Questions?

Larissa Gil Sanhueza
Senior Manager,
FCNL Young Adult Program
Larissa@fcnl.org