FRIENDS COMMITTEE ON NATIONAL LEGISLATION

... a Quaker lobby in the public interest

- The Friends Committee on National Legislation is a nonpartisan lobby that was founded in 1943 by members of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers).
- FCNL is the oldest ecumenical lobby in Washington DC and has the largest team of peace lobbyists registered on Capitol Hill.
- During the last six decades, FCNL played a pivotal role in the creation of the Peace Corps, the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, and played an important role in lobbying for the Civil Rights Act.
- FCNL today works with a network of tens of thousands of people around the country to advocate for social and economic justice, peace, environmental restoration, and good government.
- FCNL's legislative priorities are determined by Quakers from around the country. Our staff directly lobbies Congress and works with people around the country.
