

What We Do

- ✦ Founded in 1943 by members of the Religious Society of Friends, FCNL staff and volunteers work with a nationwide network of tens of thousands of people from many different races, religions, and cultures to advocate social and economic justice, peace, and good government.
- ✦ We bring the concerns, experiences, and testimonies of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) to policymakers in the nation's capital.
- ✦ Our specific change strategy involves identifying small, practical steps that individuals can take to persuade the federal government to advance our country toward the world we seek.

Our Programs

Peaceful Prevention of Deadly Conflict

Providing alternatives to war

Native American Rights

Upholding William Penn's commitments to Native Peoples

Arms Control & Nuclear Disarmament

Advocating disarmament for a safer world

Civil Liberties & Human Rights

Promoting fundamental values of liberty and fairness

U.S. Campaign to Ban Landmines

Working to eliminate immoral and ineffective weapons

Young Adults

Engaging young people in action for peace

Internships

Developing new leaders for social justice

Take Action Now

Your voice is needed on Capitol Hill!
Join us in advocating for peace and justice.

Recent efforts have included

- Stopping a new generation of nuclear weapons
- Lobbying Congress to end the Iraq war.
- Advocating well-funded Indian health programs
- Speaking out to end torture

We can help you contact your elected officials.
Visit www.fcni.org

Contribute

We need your support. You can make a secure donation online at www.fcni.org or over the phone at 1-800-630-1330.

FCNL will not sell, trade, or rent your name to any other organization.

Advocacy and Education for Action:

- ✚ Direct Lobbying of members of Congress, their staff, and executive branch agencies
- ✚ Education, Research, Training – timely, relevant and usable information for constituents, colleague organizations, and members of Congress.
- ✚ Field Program with lobby days, resources for action, and timely mobilization of grassroots activists.
- ✚ Networking for Peace and Justice --- providing leadership and encouraging cooperation among like-minded groups.
- ✚ Publications and Website includes monthly FCNL Washington Newsletter, quarterly Indian Report, regular email news and action alerts, and other web and print publications.

Issue of Interest

Our “Green” Building

FCNL’s renovated building is a trend-setting model of environmentally friendly architecture in the nation’s capital. See a “virtual tour at www.fcnl.org

Green features in the new building include:

- Bamboo flooring
- Energy Efficient Windows
- Geothermal Heating and Cooling System
- Light scoop
- Vegetated Roof

Ending the War in Iraq

Internships

Energy and Environment

Schedule a Lobby Visit

Send an E-mail to Your Senator

Human Rights and Civil Liberties

Nuclear Disarmament

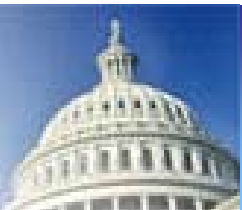

Native Americans

Opposition to Torture

Young Adults

Iraq