

Work for Peace, Justice and the Environment in Washington, DC

Friends Committee on National Legislation (FCNL) is a Quaker lobby that works to influence federal policy on issues of peace, civil liberties, nuclear disarmament, social and economic justice, and a healthy environment. FCNL is looking for interns for its 2010-2011 internship program year.

This paid internship is full-time and lasts for eleven months, beginning in September 2010.

Interns receive

- a stipend for living expenses;
- medical and dental coverage;
- sick leave and vacation time;
- and a public transportation stipend.

You may influence public policy by

- attending congressional hearings and coalition meetings;
- writing articles and action alerts;
- analyzing legislation;
- mobilizing our grassroots supporters;
- working online in communications; or
- producing and distributing publications.

You may have the opportunity to learn new skills:

- legislative research;
- lobbying;
- web design; or
- grassroots advocacy.

Candidates should have a bachelor's degree or equivalent experience by the time they would start the internship. We will begin accepting applications after January 1. All application materials are due by March 9, 2010. You can read more information and apply online at www.fcnl.org/intern. No phone calls, please.
