

"We can't shoot our way out of Afghanistan."

—Gen. Barry McCaffrey

AFGHANISTAN: MORE TROOPS WON'T BRING MORE PEACE

War Is Not the Answer in Iraq and will never be the answer in Afghanistan. The U.N., the international community, and key U.S. military leaders agree there is no military solution in Afghanistan.

Rather than voting more money to expand the war in Afghanistan, Congress should invest in the long-term diplomacy and development assistance that will lead to a comprehensive peace.

Afghanistan can't be the exit strategy for Iraq.

As we approach the 6th anniversary of the U.S. invasion of Iraq, tell Congress to support a diplomatic surge, not a troop surge, in Afghanistan.

Send your message and get a free War Is Not the Answer bumper sticker at www.warisnottheanswer.com!

