

Friends Committee on National Legislation

A Quaker Lobby in the Public Interest

We Are:

Prophetic

Our Spirit-led, nonpartisan advocacy builds relationships in Washington and around the country that are changing federal policy. Grounded in our Quaker faith and testimonies, we lobby Congress to make progress towards the world we seek.

Persistent

For nearly 75 years, peace and justice have been the core of our lobbying. Climate change, military spending, peacebuilding policy, and mass incarceration are a few of the issues we work on, building consensus and advancing legislative solutions to the challenges our country faces today.

Powerful

FCNL's strategic lobbying gets results. From the creation of the Peace Corps and passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act to the 2015 Iran nuclear deal, FCNL has been pivotal to some of our country's landmark legislation. Our power stems from the integrity of our positions, our effective lobbying in Washington, and our committed grassroots network.
