

Durham Friends Meeting

As Quakers, we believe in that of God in all life and our freedom to worship and celebrate the beauty in our world. The very threat of intrusion of government agents in our sacred places not only diminishes our religious practice but also discourages our most vulnerable neighbors from joining us. We stand with fellow Quakers in asserting our right to protect our sacred worship space.