

Friends Committee on National Legislation

Will You Leave a Legacy for Peace and Justice?

With a simple gift that costs nothing during your lifetime, you can make a transformational difference.

This brochure contains general gift, estate, and financial planning information for educational purposes. It does not provide legal or tax advice. For advice or assistance on specific gifts and decisions please consult an attorney or other professional advisors. Planned Giving Content © 2015, PlannedGiving.Com

What Your Legacy Could Do

Thank you for your interest in the important mission of FCNL. Every gift is important to us and shows that you share our vision. If FCNL is one of your most important charitable causes, you can make it part of your legacy. When you remember FCNL or the FCNL Education Fund in your will, you leave a lasting legacy to your values as you help continue our work far into the future.

Why Include a Charitable Gift in Your Will?

1. It's simple to do. It can be as easy as including language stating, "I give ten percent of the net value of my estate to Friends Committee on National Legislation."
2. You can change your mind. We won't receive the gift until after your death. During your lifetime, you can amend anything you choose, i.e., beneficiaries, amounts, etc.
3. Tax-wise, it could be beneficial. A gift in your will to the FCNL Education Fund reduces the value of your estate for estate tax purposes.
4. It's an easy way to support FCNL, and we'd be grateful for your gift. Bequests of every size build our future financial strength.

How you include a gift in your will or revocable trust depends on what you want to accomplish, and what you want to give. Here are some options:

1. Give a percentage of your estate — e.g., "I give 25% of the net value of my estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes to Friends Committee on National Legislation."
2. Give a percentage of the residue of your estate — the amount left after specific bequests have been given to individuals and organizations; e.g., "I give 25% of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate to Friends Committee on National Legislation."
3. Give a specific dollar amount or item of property; e.g., "I give the Friends Committee on National Legislation $25,000" or "I give the Friends Committee on National Legislation 100 shares of IBM stock."
4. If your estate will be large enough to increase estate taxes (more than $5.45 million for federal) you can reduce estates taxes by giving instead to the FCNL Education Fund.

Let Your Legacy Mirror Your Passion

Besides choosing how your bequest will come to us, you also have a say in how it will be used and acknowledged here:

- Make the gift unrestricted — it will be used for the top priority need identified by FCNL;
- Make the gift restricted, i.e., to support a specific area of interest;
- Memorialize or honor a loved one: “This gift is made in memory of my loving husband, a friend of FCNL.”

The correct legal name of FCNL is:

The Friends Committee on National Legislation, a 501-c-4 nonprofit organization located in Washington, DC

The correct legal name of FCNL Education Fund is:

FCNL Education Fund, a 501-c-3 charitable organization located in Washington, DC.

Contact Information

Planning your estate and legacy for future generations including your charitable interests takes careful evaluation. Consulting with the appropriate professionals can assist you. Discussing your charitable intentions with us can lead to a much better result than going it alone— and will ensure that your gift is used just as you wish. We can provide valuable information about any of the creative giving techniques mentioned in the planned giving pages on our website.

Act now to take the steps that you need to do to be a good steward of the resources you intend to leave behind. You can contact me below, or use our request for information form on our website to get more information.

For more information:

Mary Comfort Ferrell
Planned Giving Director

(800) 630-1330 ext. 2539
(202) 903-2539
marycomfort@fcnl.org

Friends Committee on National Legislation

A Quaker Lobby in the Public Interest